National Webinar on “Chemistry for a Smarter and Better World”

Distinguished Resource Persons

Dr Prashanta Kumar Panda Professor Chief scientist and Head Material Science Division NAL, Bangalore
Dr Padmaja prasad Mishra Associate Professor Saha Institute of Nuclear Physics

About the Webinar :

The current situation of emergency in the health sector has prompted the experts of various fields to break the glass ceilings of innovation and go beyond our current technologies to handle the pandemic.

The experts in the stream of chemistry are also not behind but are rather pioneering to bring about a rapid evolution in health monitoring facilities, manufacturing energy efficient nano technology and smart materials that can self heal and repair themselves.

The intent of this webinar is to shed light on these emerging technological gifts from chemistry.
